Description of relationships and interests

For a more detailed explanation, see the Code paragraph entitled 'Transparency in relationships and interests'. <http://www.gezondheidsraad.nl/sites/default/files/codedigital2012EN.pdf>

Personal financial interests

Examples:

An advisory committee member that acts on behalf of a company operating in the sector covered by the recommendation/guideline.

Direct financial interests in a company (shares or stock options).

I have not financial interests in any company.

I do not act on behalf of any company.

Personal relationships

Example:

Individuals in your immediate environment (such as family members, partners, friends and immediate colleagues) that could benefit from the outcome of a specific recommendation.

I have not personal relationships with any member of Dutch institutions that could benefit from the outcome of my recommendations.

Reputation management

Examples:

Participation for the purpose of the position of the employer or other special interest groups, or gaining personal recognition.

Head of a patient organisation or professional association.

I am not participating in any interest group nor association related to my work as reviewer.

Externally funded research

Example:

Participation in research funded by (semi-)governmental organisations, funds or industry, whereby the financier may have an interest in specific outcomes.

I have conducted externally funded research with private companies related to:

- manufacturing of agricultural machinery
- manufacturing of pesticides. In this case, my research has been related to the technical and scientific assessment of drift mitigating techniques.

Knowledge valorisation

Examples:

Unique, specialist expertise on the areas and sub-areas covered by the research project, offering the potential for commodification. This may concern a product, procedure or intervention, as well as a new theoretical concept or model or a new organisational or logistical approach.

Ownership of a product patent.

I have been author of different patents related to the design of agricultural sprayers. I do not own them.

Other interests

Do you or those around you have any other interests that could be a source of potential embarrassment to you, your environment or the organisation if made public?

No, as far as I know.
